Our testimony encourages others; but the spirit of prophecy is the testimony of Jesus. Our faith might move mountains; but consider the faith of Jesus, what He knows to be true.

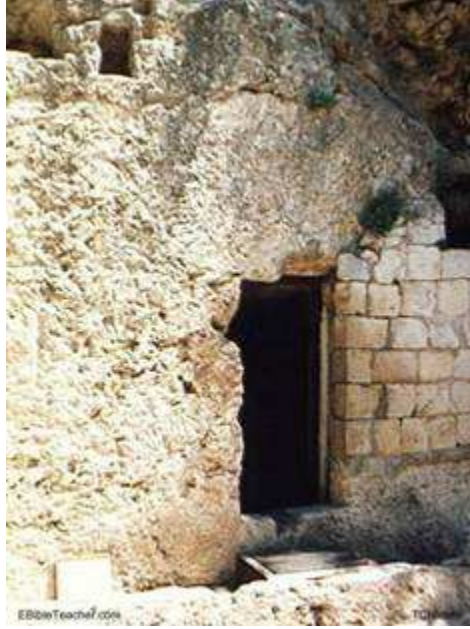

“Before Abraham was, I am.”
 “I am the bread of life...I am the living bread.”
 “I am the light of the world.”
 “I am the door; by Me if any one enter in, he shall be saved...”
 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd gives his life for the sheep.”
 I am the resurrection and the life.”
 “I am the true vine.”
 “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, which
 Is and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.”
 “I am the first and the last: I am He which lives, and was dead;
 And behold, I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have
 The keys of hell and of death.”

We might boast as to how much we love God (though our words will be tested); but Jesus demonstrated His love in a way we never could.

In this was manifested the love of God toward us,
 Because that God sent His only begotten Son into the world,
 That we might live through Him.
 Herein is love, not that we loved God,
 But that He loved us, and sent His Son
 To be the propitiation for our sins. 1 John 4.9, 10

We might seek to enjoy God and glorify Him; but Jesus glorifies the Father in that the Father has given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as the Father has given Him. We might think much of ourselves, operating in the manifestation gifts of the Holy Spirit; but Jesus manifested the Father's Name, saying, "I and the Father are one."

While we go out on our missions carrying a message, let's remember that if Jesus had not been sent by the Father, had not obeyed all that the Father gave Him to do, had not laid down His life for lost sinners, had not died and risen again, had not ascended into heaven promising to return again in power, we would have no gospel. We would have no message of salvation. We would have no hope of eternal life.

So look unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him that endured such contradiction of sinners against Himself, lest you be wearied and faint in your minds. You have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin. Hebrews 12.2-4

His story is our story. And we take that story to the nations along with every believer who testifies of his/her faith around the world and across backyard fences. MCM just completed its 38th mission trip, and the fourth mission to Israel, this time focusing on the Galilee and again, Jerusalem. Our five-member team, Rev. Jim Craig, Kroy Ellis, Wanda Barlow, David and Betty Patten, each had assignments from the Holy Spirit, things they were to say and things they were to do.

Kroy with Lorraine and Sara

A young woman from the Philippines received Christ, Sara, a Jewish woman witnessed the miracle of salvation, the testimony of Jesus went forth, and all that was in the heart and mind of God will come to pass. We praise Him even as we are humbled in the Presence.

MCM is a spiritual warfare ministry called by God to bring healing and restoration to the Body of Christ, to prepare the Bride for Jesus' return, and to call the nations to repentance and to resurrection as directed by the Holy Spirit. Sixty-seven nations and nearly 17 years later, we continue to strive to keep in step with the Spirit as He advances the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

Thank you for your prayers. Thank you for your support. We hope you will join us at Craighouse®, a Christian Fellowship where people grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ and go...in His Name, for His glory, by His grace.
